"Finding Hope for the Future"

Pastor Dave Vasquez, September 10-11, 2016

INTRODUCTION

We all face challenges in our lives which may cast doubt on our future. Our church recently faced such a challenge when we lost our beloved Pastor Ron. At such times we can become anxious about what lies ahead. But God has given us many assurances that tell us He holds our future and His intentions for us are good. We may not know all the details of our future, but what we can be sure of, gives us a hope that can withstand the storms of life. In this study we find how to rest in, rejoice over and live in anticipation of our hope for the future.

Ice Breaker (Optional):

Have you ever experienced a storm at sea? If so, what was it like?

Study Questions (45 MIN)

Rest in your anchored hope.

Q1. Read Hebrews 6:17, 19-20; Matthew 8:23-26

Biblical hope is defined as a "favorable and confident expectation". How is this definition different from the way we commonly define hope? What is God concerned with in Hebrews 6:17 and why do you think it is so important to Him? Why do you think that Jesus was able to rest during the storm at sea while his disciples were terrified? In the "storms" of your life, do you recall a time when God enabled you to rest in your hope in the future, despite adverse circumstances?

Rejoice in your living hope.

Q2. Read 1 Peter 1:3-5; Isaiah 61:1-4, 7

The living hope we have is anchored in the resurrection of Jesus. How does Peter describe that hope in 1 Peter 1:4? This certainly is a hope to which we can anchor our faith! In this God, demonstrated His ability to bring life to the dead and beauty from destruction. Read the passage in Isaiah 61 above, noting the different ways that God's Spirit revives and restores. Have you experienced God's restoration in your life? What losses or hurts in your past would you like to see God restore? Have your group include this in their prayer requests.

Anticipate your blessed hope.

Q3. Read Titus 2:11-13; Philippians 3:20-21; Colossians 3:4; Ephesians 1:18-21

In his letter to Titus, Paul referred to the glorious appearing of Jesus as "our blessed hope". What is it about the glorious appearing that gives us cause to hope and to rejoice? (Philippians 3:20-21, Colossians 3:4) We also see in Ephesians 1:19-21 that the believer not only has a glorious inheritance, but also incomparable power available to us now. Even though we look forward to that day of Christ's appearing, what does Paul encourage the believer to do while we wait (Titus 2:12)?

Wrap-Up

God has provided us with a firm assurance of our future with Him. He wants to make that promise clear to us through His word, so that we have an anchor for our souls and a place of rest, free from anxiety over our future. Ours is a living hope based on the resurrection of Jesus. Not only do we have the hope of eternal life, we have a God who breathes life into the areas of our lives that need to be revived and restored. And we can rejoice in the anticipation of our blessed hope, the glorious appearing of our Lord, because we will appear with Him, and be like Him. And even now, the power that raised Christ from the dead is at work in us while we wait for His appearing.

Memory Verse

I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people,

Ephesians 1:18 NIV

Q1

Hebrews 6:17, 19-20 NIV - 17 Because God wanted to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he confirmed it with an oath... 19 We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain, 20 where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

Matthew 8:23-26 ESV - 23 And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. 24 And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. 25 And they went and woke him, saying, "Save us, Lord; we are perishing." 26 And he said to them, "Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?" Then he rose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.

Q2

1 Peter 1:3-5 ESV - 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, 5 who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Read Isaiah 61:1-4, 7 in your Bible.

$\mathbf{Q3}$

Titus 2:11-13 NIV - 11 For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. 12 It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, 13 while we wait for the blessed hope--the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ,

Philippians 3:20-21 NIV - 20 But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.

Colossians 3:4 NIV - 4 When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

Ephesians 1:18-21 NIV - 18 I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, 19 and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is the same as the mighty strength 20 he exerted when he raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, 21 far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked, not only in the present age but also in the one to come.
